Sport Club Code of Conduct

The behavior of all individuals (students and coaches) involved in the Maryland Sport Club Program reflects not only on him/herself, but also on Campus Recreation Services (CRS) and the University of Maryland. Participation with a sport club carries with it a great deal of personal responsibility. As a member of a CRS sport club, club members are expected to conduct themselves in the most positive way possible at all times.

All members of the Maryland Sport Club program, and clubs/teams as a whole, are required to adhere to all federal, state, and University laws, guidelines, standards and policies. Campus Recreation Services, through the Maryland Sport Club program, reserves the right to, with due process, issue sanctions, including but not limited to denying or revoking membership to individuals or clubs in violation of University policies.

Each sport club may be held responsible for the acts of its individual members. Clubs may be subject to suspension or expulsion from the Maryland Sport Club program for violation of University policies, the University Of Maryland Student Code Of Conduct, and/or federal and/or state laws.

CLUB MEMBERS, OFFICERS, AND COACHES SHALL NOT:

- Engage in any form of hazing. Hazing is defined by the University as “intentionally or recklessly subjecting any person to the risk of bodily harm, or severe emotional distress, or causing or encouraging any person to commit an act that would be a violation of law or university regulations, for the purpose of initiating, promoting, fostering, or confirming any form of affiliation with a student group or organization, as defined by the Code of Student Conduct.” (Office of Student Conduct)

- Provide false information to a University official.

As a member of the Maryland Sport Club program, I accept that participation in a sport club is an opportunity and a privilege, not a right. I agree to act in accordance with the guidelines outlined above. I have read and fully understand this code of conduct and my submission of this form confirms my understanding that my team and I may be subject to probation, suspension or termination from the Maryland Sport Club program for any violation of the code.

Failure to agree to this Code of Conduct disqualifies a student or coach from participating in the Maryland Sport Club program.
